Proceedings

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION

Bartow, Florida, January 12, 1933.

The Central Florida Conference of the A. M. E. Church met in its Thirty-third annual session in St. James A. M. E. Church, Bartow, Florida at 10 o'clock a. m., Rev. J. S. Flipper, D. D., LL. D., A. M., D. C. L., presiding Bishop of the Eleventh Episcopal District, presiding.

After the devotional services, Bishop Flipper made timely remarks in which he referred to the four conferences which he has held already this Conference year. He said that peace and harmony had prevailed throughout the sessions, and said that he hoped the same would prevail here. He spoke at length about the decrease in finance, and the general depression throughout the country. He said that with better organization throughout the church, the depression would be less effective in the church work.

Bishop said that pastors should have the very highest respect for presiding elders. He referred to the transferring of ministers, and said that during his stay here that he had only transferred two ministers into this state, but that if the men do not care to transfer, he will bring in others from other states to take care of the larger charges. He advised all presiding elders not to move a man unless it is absolutely necessary.

Bishop Flipper referred to the bond issue of Edward Waters College, making a special request that all presiding elders and pastors, as well as members, purchase one or more bonds, their valuation being Five, Ten and Twenty-five Dollars ($5.00, $10.00 and $25.00) said bonds drawing (6 per cent) interest. He said that there are forty thousand members of the A. M. E. Church in Florida, and that if every member would purchase bonds, that would take care of all indebtedness of the college, and place the college on good basis. He said that he had asked each elder to report One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) on their May Day assessment. This he said, would eliminate the borrowing of funds for which to pay the teachers. He said that he is endeavoring to cut out the Endowment Day, but said that this can only be done by coming up on our May Day assessment.

Bishop Flipper referred to a decision made by a presiding elder in a quarterly conference which was contrary to the discipline, and said that they should study and know the law of the church before rendering decision. He referred to indebtedness of ministers, and admonished them to pay their debts.

The organization was as follows: Rev. R. W. Logan, chief secretary; Rev. E. T. Kelley, statistical secretary; Rev. R. D. Nimmons, engrossing secretary.

The opening and closing hours of the Conference as follows: To open at 9:30 a. m.; adjourn at twelve noon. Re-convene at 3 p. m., and adjourn at will. The bounds of the Conference as follows: taking in the eighth seat from the chancel rail, and including the amen corners.

Revs. L. S. Zanders and D. Baity were elected marshals. Reporters: Rev. C. I. Roberts, Christian Recorder; Rev. J. J. Heath, Southern Recorder; Rev. T. M. White, Western Recorder; and Dr. C. S. Long, secular papers.

The brethren on admission were called for and the following brethren were recommended, and upon motion they were passed to the Committee on Admission: Brothers Columbus Hillman, Lutrell Long, and A. J. Richardson. They were from the Tampa District.

The marshals were called for to distribute the committee sheets. The secretary then called the committee roll.

Bishop Flipper called for those to be ordained local deacons and elders. There were none.

After the Dollar Money Committee took its place, the presiding elders made their reports. The rolls of superannuated ministers, widows and orphans were corrected. The following named widows were added to the roll: Sisters L. A. McBride, M. L. Chisholm and Hattie Walker. Bishop Flipper then made mention of a letter coming from Mrs. W. L. Stephens, stating that she was the widow of an itinerant minister. After some discussion pro and con, the Bishop ordered the matter left open for investigation. He then announced that all itinerant elders and deacons would be teachers in the Sunday School, Sunday morning, and asked that each raise Five Dollars ($5.00.)

Bishop Flipper presented Dr. I. C. Steady of Sierra Leone, West Africa. Dr. Steady spoke very briefly of his work in Africa, and said that he is a product of the work started more than thirty years ago by the late Bishop Henry McNeil Turner.

Dr. A. J. Ferrell read a resolution referring to Bishop Flipper's work while in the state, his fatherly counsel and guidance, and to Mrs. Flipper and her work since being in the state, who put over such a tremendous program, raising more than Five Hundred Dollars for Edward Waters College and to Dr. Curry as candidate to the Book Concern; Dr. M. D. Potter as editor of the Southern Christian Recorder, and Dr. C. S. Long as Bishop in 1936. Upon motion, said resolution was adopted. (See resolution.)

The Finance Committee was then re-elected with the adding of Dr. G. J. Oates, P. E. of the Leesburg District.

Doxology. Benediction, Bishop J. S. Flipper.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

At 3 p. m., the Conference joined in singing, "Nearer, My God to Thee." Bishop Flipper then called for the reports of pastors, beginning with Dr. C. S. Long, pastor of St. Paul, Tampa District, the others followed in order.

Bishop Flipper announced that there was an increase in conversions and membership over that of last year. He then announced the following transfers: Rev. S. J. Butler from the East Florida Conference; Rev. A. B. Cooper, Rev. G. J. Oates, Rev. R. A. Blount; Rev. R. W. Logan from the South Florida Conference; Revs. James Murry and R. L. Murrell from the East Florida Conference.

Bishop Flipper then announced that he has 100 bibles, fifty of which he is going to give to this Conference, to be given to mission work, and that any minister of the mission work who hasn't a pulpit bible, can get one at little cost by conferring with him.

Bishop Flipper then asked Dr. Dempsy, P. E. of the West Tampa District to take charge of the meeting tonight (Thursday evening.)

Doxology. Benediction by Bishop Flipper.

FIRST DAY—EVENING SESSION

At 7:55 the choir led the doxology. Dr. E. D. Dempsey, P. E. of the West District led the scripture sentences. Dr. S. J. Johnson, P. E. of the North Jacksonville District of the East Florida Conference, lined hymn No. 3, "The Truth of God Shall Still Endure." Prayer was offered by Dr. J. B. Blacknell, P. E. of the Lakeland District of the South Florida Conference. The choir rendered a selection, "The Lord Is My Life and Salvation." Dr. C. S. Long, pastor of St. Paul, Tampa, read as scripture lesson the 35th chapter of Isaiah. The choir rendered a selection, "When We All Get to Heaven."

Dr. Dempsey announced the object of the meeting and then presented Dr. E. J. Jackson, P. E. of the West Palm Beach District of the South Florida Conference, as the first speaker of the occasion. Dr. Jackson spoke from the subject: "A New Solidarity of the A. M. E. Church." The storm of applause bespoke the power of this masterful address.

Rev. A. W. Smith led in singing, "I'm on My Journey Home." Dr. E. D. Dempsey, P. E., then presented Dr. I. C. Steady, P. E. of our church work in Freetown Sierra Leone, West Africa. Dr. Steady spoke very forcibly of the mission work in Africa, done by the A. M. E. Church, and gave us to know that the church is moving on. This address was enjoyed by all. This appreciative audience will go down from this place remembering Dr. Steady, and being grateful for the opportunity to hear from a phonograph record the voices in song of our native kindred across the sea. Rev. J. H. Miles of the East Florida Conference rendered a selection, "He's a Battle Ax." The choir rendered a selection, "Ringing Out."

Dr. G. E. Curry of the East Jacksonville District of the East Florida Conference, was then presented by Dr. Dempsey and after singing "There Is Sunshine In The Shadow," Presiding Elder Curry spoke briefly from the subject: "The Church's Opportunity Lined up With God." This address was followed by a storm of applause. Rev. L. S. Johnson led in singing, "I Know I Am Your Child."

Dr. Dempsey read a notice by the missionary sisters of a meeting to be held Friday afternoon at Mt. Gilbo Baptist church, at which place Mrs. Flipper will deliver an address. This notice invited all missionary workers of all sister churches.

The Finance Committee came forward and lifted a contribution of ten Dollars ($10.00.) Rev. J. H. Miles led in singing, "All Alone."

Dr. Dempsy announced that any minister wishing to use Dr. Miles would find him at 764 Church Street, Jacksonville, Florida. Dr. Miles is in the evangelical work.

Announcements. Doxology. Benediction, Dr. E. J. Jackson.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION

At 9:30 Rev. J. J. Heath opened devotional services by lining hymn No. 1, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing, My Great Redeemer's Praise." Prayer was offered by Rev. C. I. Roberts. Rev. E. J. W. Day led in singing, "God Will Take Care of You." Rev. J. J. Heath read for scripture lesson, the 37th Psalm. Rev. Day then led in singing, "A Charge to Keep I Have." The minutes of the previous day's session were read and with the following correction, adopted: "Dr. M. D. Potter is aspiring for the editorship of the Christian Recorder instead of the Southern Christian Recorder. The men coming up for admission were referred to the Committee on Admission, rather than were admitted," as stated by the minutes.

Bishop Flipper then proceeded to close the financial reports, after which he announced that the decrease in Dollar Money in this Conference was $1,125.00.

The following committees reported and upon motion their reports were adopted. Committees on Admission, First Year Studies, Third Year Studies, Fourth Year Studies, Seminary Funds, Easter Day, May Day, Endowment Day, Children's Day, Minute Money, Allen Day, General Conference Delegate's Fund, Woman's Mite Missionary Society, Bible Cause, Superannuated Preachers' Fund, State of the Country, Presiding Elders' Assessment. (See reports.)

A motion prevailed that the East Tampa District be called the Manatee District, and that the West Tampa District be known as the St. Petersburg District.

The Temperance Committee made its report, and upon attempt of passage, was arrested by Dr. C. S. Long, who stated that the M. E. Church has called a meeting to convene in February at Washington, D. C., to fight the repeal of the 18th Amendment, and offered an amendment to the report, that Dr. Potter be elected as a representative from this Conference to the meeting of the M. E. Church at Washington. The amendment was adopted.

Rev. George E. McGriff asked that his relation to the Conference be changed from superannuated to that of the itinerancy. Motion prevailed.

Rev. A. C. W. Dixon upon application was granted superannuated relations to the Conference. Rev. M. Anderson asked to be superannuated. The same was denied.

Bishop Flipper then announced the transfer of Rev. F. S. Starling from the Macon Georgia Conference to this Conference.

A motion prevailed that the presiding elders collect on Allen Day, the second Sunday in February, One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) on their May Day Assessment. Bishop Flipper then called for those to be admitted, and presented them a Discipline of the church. Rev. John Tillman applied for superannuated relation to the Conference; this was granted him.

The Disciplinary questions were then taken up, and at the eleventh question, it was found that Revs. E. W. Wright, and C. H. TEMPERANCE

Bartow, Fla., Jan. 13, 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Florida Conference. Greetings.

We your Committee on Temperance beg to submit the following report. Having looked carefully into the subject of Temperance, we find that this is a subject that has the entire country puzzled. The Congress of the United States is now debating this question, and it seems to be a hard question to settle. It is a question in which the church is greatly concerned. The decision of the last election seemed to be in favor of the repeal of the 18th Amendment, which is to be regretted. According to that decision, the temperance question is deplorable.

The local condition is not what it should be. We find that a great many members of the church are engaged in this ungodly practice. We ask the prayers of the Bishop and Conference that this vice may be eliminated.

Respectfully submitted,

T. D. TYSON,
E. D. DIXON,
L. H. GRIFFIN,

EDUCATION

Bartow, Fla., Jan., 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Florida Annual Conference. Greetings.

Your committee, to whom the report on Education has been assigned, makes the following report.

Next to our religion the A. M. E. Church of which we are part and parcel should turn our forces toward the field of Education which means the making of any race group. To Bishop Daniel A. Payne, the Apostle of Education of our great church, we owe a debt of gratitude we will never be able to pay, not only the A. M. E. church owes this debt, but our entire race group.

I am forced to believe it was he who held out hope educationally to the Negro race. Catching the spirit of this educational genius they have pushed forward and organized the following institutions: Wilberforce University in Ohio; Allen University, in South Carolina; Paul Quinn College, Texas; Kittrell College, North Carolina; Western University, Missouri; Shorter College, Arkansas; Greater Payne University, Alabama; Turner College, Lampton College, Campbell College, Flipper-Key-Davis College. Last but not least Morris Brown and Edward Waters College.

In the field of education today as it effects humanity, namely, there are four that are outstanding, spiritual, physical, moral and intellectual education.

And of these four, there seems to be a force at work, in the modern idea of education, to lay great stress on two, and place less on the other two, which to my mind is most important.

As I see it today, there is a turning away from the spiritual and intellectual education to that of physical and vocational. While all are important and should be developed, with the spiritual receiving the greater attention.

All the races and nations of earth who have neglected spiritual development or education, have and will forever meet with destruction.

The denominational institutions of the A. M. E. Church have kept abreast with the times, in that it has produced leaders and thinkers who sat steady in the boat and guided the old ship thus far. Our churches and schools must be maintained, because she must continue to make and prepare leaders for the race.

One thing we are to be proud of is the progress we are making in our schools both private and public from every angle. We are improving our buildings, and faculties are being improved as the years come and go. Many of our schools are being accredited. Our own Edward Waters College is now on the accredited list.

Our problem today is not so much how well we have done, but it is how shall we maintain and carry on. Our schools are a heritage from the sainted past, they come down to us with blood, tears and prayers. What shall we do?

I dare close without speaking a word about our own Bishop J. S. Flipper, and the committee appointed to study ways and means for the paying out of debt and the carrying on of the school we love, in that they have worked out a bonding issue. If carried out will enable us to keep pace with the thought Kipling had in mind in his great poem which will enable us to write our names among the immortals.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. HEATH.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY

Bartow, Fla., Jan. 12, 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Conference: Greetings.

Your Committee on State of the Country beg to render our report.

Never before in the history of our common country have there been such conditions as obtain throughout the land today.

The war of the Revolution, the War of 1812, nor the Civil War, severe and devastating as they were, did not produce the wholesale suffering as is felt all over the country today.

Mr Green, head of the labor organizations of the land, just last week stated that fourteen million men were without work, and that unless the five-day week program as put forth by Labor was accepted by Capital, by the end of the year there would be twenty millions out of work.

What brought the present crisis about is generally traced to over-product-ion, and the elimination of human labor by the machine. Like a plague these times came as by night.

We admit that desperate struggles have been made and are being made to find a way out and still the depression is on. The master minds of all lands have come forth with solutions, only to find that they would not work in restoring stable conditions throughout the world. Thousands of our people have been thrown out of employment.

The black man has been the last hired, and the first fired on the jobs of the country. In some sections brute force has been resorted to, to take the work from Negroes; just last week a fireman was shot and killed in Louisiana while at work on his engine for the purpose of getting his place. This is just one of many that has gone on in the Mississippi delta for the past few years.

Make Your Own Job.

No work, no money, no food gives rise to a menacing situation that is every where becoming more and more appalling. Negroes as truck drivers, porters, street cleaners, hotel employees, railway firemen, brakeman, flag-men, section hands and in fact in every avenue of industry are being replaced with laborers of another group. What are the Negroes of the cities going to do when they wake up some morning and find themselves without jobs?

This gives rise to the reflection that we have got to, in some way, make jobs for ourselves and people. And those who have jobs must make themselves indispensable to their employers. We must be the first on the job and the last to leave. We must do more and better work to hold our place in the market of labor.

Perhaps no greater field is open to us than the farm, to those who know how and have the means to start.

In the farming section, and especially the staple farming section, there is less want than anywhere. They have their barns filled with corn, potatoes, meat, syrup, lard, milk and butter, and but for the customary handling of a little change, they do not know that the panic is on.

Your Committee would recommend in its final word that we urge our people to return to God who will abundantly pardon our transgressions, and to our God who will deliver.

Respectfully submitted,

C. S. LONG, Chr.
J. D. JONES,
J. Q. STEPHENS,
A. H. HAINES.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

Bartow, Fla., Jan. 14, 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Central Florida Conference.

We your Committee ask to submit the following report, on the State of the Church. We are not unmindful of the fact that the church is a God-given, God-directed institution and neither His purpose or plans ever fail. God may, for reasons best known to himself, suffer or permit at times temporary reverses, but the church of the living God must not and will not lose ground. The church militant and the church triumphant are our brightest hope of unified endeavor. The church is the exponent of true Christianity or progressive religion from the time of the church in the wilderness until now. Take man with all of his bluntness, God has so aroused, through his plan and special means of grace to activity's point that intuition or the self-discoverer of a higher source, a greater being.

God With Us

We readily admit that the church has not done all that it ought, could and should have, but with all her failures and shortcomings, the world's stand and continued existence is due to the twofold relationship and the stronghold that it has on God.

The Church Is One Foundation

The influence of the church has and always will be the greatest and most powerful agency for good and holding the world together to be found anywhere. The church does at least three things noticeable as well as profitable: first, it shelters; second, protects; and third, sounds a note of warning. So if heeded and watchful unto prayers, all things being equal, there will be no need of the world slipping or going backward, for God lives, and certainly he is with the church.

Quoting Mr. Sam W. Small; "The savagery of intolerance should be wiped out in the South." He spoke of the ignorant weapon, the mob method, luing, etc. Then boldly and courageously held up the church and Christ-ianity as a panacea for all ills. And so we add that the world may be drunk with new wine, but the church of the living God will never bow to Baal. Nor stop one time to compromise with the devil.

So we your Committee recommend that we continue to exercise faith in God and cease not to work in the church of God with expectancy of the militant and triumphant entry in the final day.

Respectfully your Committee,

F. ROUNDTREE,
B. E. W. DAWKINS,
R. L. GREEN,
E. W. WRIGHT,
E. J. HARRINGTON,
R. W. WILLIAMS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Bartow, Fla., Jan. 13, 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Conference. Greetings.

I beg leave to render this my report on Sunday Schools. The Sunday School had its origin by Robert Raikes in 1781 at Gloucester, England and the movement so commanded itself all over Great Britain that in 1786, five years after its origin, it was estimated that there were more than 250,000 children, besides men and women following this great movement.

This Sunday School movement spread to London, and formed an organization in 1803, and later Sunday Schools were opened in Scotland, and in the Protestant part of Ireland. The first American Sunday School was opened in Philadelphia in 1790, and a society for the propagation of the work was formed in New York in 1815, and from these Sunday Schools, there was held in New York in 1832, a National Sunday School Convention, and a World's Convention was held in London in 1889. In 1872, the International Series was agreed upon, and for nearly a quarter of a century, these lessons were in use by the Protestant churches throughout the world. They were gradually replaced by a graded system of lessons for all classes, except those in the adult department, and because of the growth of the Sunday School; many churches have Teacher Training Departments.

In 1918—according to record—there were in the United States 145,978 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 17,715,224 teachers and pupils, learning of secret and revealed truths.

It is through the teachings in the Sunday Schools that we get a better knowledge of God; and this knowledge is to be obtained from only one source, and that source is the Bible; and it is from the studying of God's word that we become deeply interested in the truths of revelation, and to neglect this teaching as it comes to us from the Sunday Schools, is deep tone criminality, and cruelty to our children, ingratitude to our ancestors, and disobedience to heaven.

Next to our children, there are those who would rise up in ignorance if others did not care for them. Some are orphans, others fatherless, and others so far as their souls are concerned, even worst still. Revealed things belong to them, and it is ours to bestow them, and it is in the Sunday School that this great end is kept constantly in view. The volume of revelation is the class book placed in their hands, and to make them understand, feel, and practice it, is the end of Sunday School teaching.

The Sunday School is spreading its wings like a green bay tree planted by the river of water, and through its teachings we are enlightened, convinced, regenerated, and those of us who practice these virtues as taught in the Sunday School are on our quiet march to our eternal glory.

Respectfully,

R. W. LOGAN,
B. J. EDWARDS,
D. R. RANDOLPH,
A. B. REID,
E. S. NELSON.

MEMOIRS

Bartow, Fla., Jan. 14, 1933.

To the Bishop and Members of the Conference. Greetings.

We your Committee on Memoirs beg to make the following report. Since the last session of our Conference, the Grim Reaper, Death, came into our fold, and took from among us some of our choicest flock, leaving our hearts in sorrow: Revs. I. S. McBride, D. G. Chisholm, P. R. Rainey and wife.

These brethren served faithfully, and proved themselves stewards well worthy of their trust in the Master's vineyard. They are gone, but not forgotten, and each of their places will be hard to fill.

Sister Rainey proved herself a helpmate to Rev. Rainey and shared with him his joys and sorrows in this world of sin, she has gone with him to share with him joys of the glory land.

Sorrowfully submitted,
